

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1877.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN is now conceded to be pre-eminently the best daily newspaper published in Washington, and prints more reading matter in each issue than all the other daily journals of the Capital combined. It contains the latest telegraphic news and correspondence. It is free from all objectionable articles, reports and advertisements, and may be safely admitted to every decent circle.

The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN is delivered by express to any address in the District of Columbia for Fifty Cents a Month.

Twelve Cents a Week.

The NATIONAL REPUBLICAN will be mailed to subscribers in the United States postage prepaid at the following rates, always in advance:

One year $1.00

Two years $1.80

Three years $2.50

The above rates are inevitable. Results in Post Office money orders, if possible, otherwise send money in a registered letter.

Address NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, Washington, D. C.

*Rates of Advertising for Cash.

Four lines (double)	Two lines	One line	Half line	Quarter line	Third line
$1.00	50	25	12 1/2	6 1/2	4 1/2
Imports, daily	50	25	12 1/2	6 1/2	4 1/2
Exports, daily	50	25	12 1/2	6 1/2	4 1/2
Carries weekly	50	25	12 1/2	6 1/2	4 1/2
Local News, twenty per line, each insertion; 50¢ extra for each additional insertion.

Local News, twenty per line, each insertion; 50¢ extra for each additional insertion.

Postage paid for the first insertion, 50¢ extra for each subsequent insertion.

*Postage Paid. If an advertisement exceeds four lines the price will be increased proportionately. All advertisements are payable at the time of their insertion. Marriages and death notices of three lines, twenty-five cents each.

*Advertisements under the heads of "Wants," "To Rent," "For Sale," "Boarding," "Personal," "Lost and Found," consisting of two lines or more, ten cents per line each insertion.

Notice. We beg leave to state that we decline to return repeated communications, and to this rate we are liable for exceptions.

Persons leaving the city for the summer can have THE NATIONAL mailed to any address by paying 50¢ extra per month, bimonthly or annually.

The Republicans in New York

can be obtained at BRENTANO'S News Emporium, 20 Union Square.

We shall esteem it a favor if Persons who fall to receive their Paper regularly will report that fact to this office as often as it occurs.

National Republican.

W. J. MURTAGH, PUBLISHER.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1877.

Indications for To-day.

Being followed by a lightning or falling meteor, rising frequently, winds mostly from the south, and clear, partly cloudy weather, possibly occasional light showers.

Thermometric Readings For Yesterday.

7 A.M. 60° 60° 60° 60° 60° 60°

12 M. 60° 60° 60° 60° 60° 60°

2 P.M. 60° 60° 60° 60° 60° 60°

5 P.M. 60° 60° 60° 60° 60° 60°

SUMMARY OF THE SEAS.

The Canadian pilgrims have arrived at Rome.

The Grand Duke Alexis has arrived at Paris from Brazil.

The Bulgarian legion in Roumania now numbers 10,000 men.

Eleven hundred miners are on strike in the Leigh Pennsylvania coal region.

Gen. Grant has accepted an invitation to a tea which is to be given at Alexander's palace on June 15.

A telegram from St. Petersburg advises that Prince Gorchakov has obtained leave of absence for a six weeks' tour.

Alexander Goldsmith, a prominent Troy N. Y. jeweler, committed suicide yesterday morning by cutting his throat.

Hon. Clarkson N. Potter was thrown from his carriage and severely injured on Friday last at his country seat, New Haven, Conn., by the instrumentality of a horse.

A telegraph from New York says the instruction to the rebels in the South to resume their efforts to recover the arsenals they had captured is still continuing.

Allen C. Lane, who possessed his father and mother, and an old man residing in the family in Northampton, Mass., will be home on Saturday.

Admiral Mistafia states that five Russian torpedo boats were destroyed in the attack made on the Turkish iron-clads at the Sultana mouth of the Danube.

Three hundred Philadelphia school girls yesterday paid a visit to New York, and were received and accorded an audience by a committee from the Normal College of that city.

A dispatch from Constantinople says a corps of Montecassino troopsถอน from the main body was surprised by a party of Turks, numbering 2,000, and completely annihilated.

Ex-Sen. Hendricks and wife are in New York, and will sail to-morrow for Europe to be gone three or four months. On his return Mr. Hendricks will be at the head of the Indiana delegation.

The Silver Queen is again at Boston on Wednesday promises to be the cent of the season. The single seafarers' costume and beauty of Toronto, Buffalo and Philadelph. of New York, and all the prominent local women.

Major Powell, United States general at Ingolstadt, died suddenly on the 1st of May. His uniformly and was without doubt sooner or later the victim of his own pride.

Having suffered from slight indisposition, he took an evanescent other of asperges or croup.

In the annual regatta of the Philadelphia Yacht Club yesterday the Kate Hockley was the winner of the first race, the 12th of the second class, and the 10th of the third class. The course was up the Delaware to Delancey and return, a distance of about thirty miles.

late South American dispute has estimate the destruction of property by the recent tidal waves and earthquakes of $20,000,000. About twelve thousand persons are reported to have been killed by the disaster.

The blood relationship rule is entirely arbitrary. There is no law upon which to base it.

The appointment of Col. Davis G. Potts as postmaster at Petersburg is highly commended by the Virginians.

The Boston Post gets excited over a report that the Knob-Knocking order has been revived in Rhode Island. What's the odds? Let the little thing mind itself.

The prospects of Lomans are the sweetest she has had for years. Expect from the growing number all parts of the sugar region out of the most enviable acquaintance.

Another destruction seems in Illinois.

—The Telegraph to the National.

CINCINNATI, OHIO.—The proprietors of the Middle Creek mills at Tippewon say that the Knob-Knocking order has been revived in Rhode Island. What's the odds? Let the little thing mind itself.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg, and his son, George W. Clegg, Jr., are now in full blast, turning out 2,000 barrels of flour daily.

The two great mills of Middle Creek, owned by the late George W. Clegg,